2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

While the prior art (i.e. Kump et al) discloses a technique of stabilizing the output of an acoustooptic modulator, the prior art does not teach or suggest the limitations of determining the temperature of an optically active component by means of a temperature control loop comprising a temperature sensor and an interacting energy impinging the optically active component based on the temperature; and applying a different interacting energy to the optically active component according to the temperature control loop such that the temperature of the optically active component is maintained at a constant level.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
